Important to MILLERS & MILL OWNERS!

THE Undersigned would respectfully inform those engaged in the Milling Business in N. C., that he keeps constantly on hand, and will supply at the shortest notice, that almost invaluable article

YOUNG'S IMPROVED PATENT SMUT AND SCREENING MACHINE.

The only Machine of the kind that has stood the test and given satisfaction to the public. It has surplanted every Smut Machine yet offered in the State, more or less of which has been taken down to make room for it. The public need fear no imposition, as there are now some 280 Machines running in N C.; and I wish to offer no other references than the gentlemen who are using them, whose expectations have been more than realized in their performance. It not only thoroughly cleanses the Wheat of smut, but also purifies it of all other substances, almost to perfection. It takes up but 4 feet square in the Mill, and requires but little power. It is warranted for five years against breaking or wearing out, and also to retain its cleaning qualities for that time.

There are a number of these Machines through which 100,000 bushels of Wheat have been cleaned, and they have never been out of order one day.

There was awarded to it the Premium at the Maryland State Fair, and a Premium with a Silver Medal, at the Fair of the Maryland Institute, at Baltimore, last Fall.

Address the Subscriber at South Lowell Mills, Orange county, N. C. JNO. A. McMANNEN.

ROANOKE LANDS.

THE Subscriber, having four Plantations containing about 4,500 acres on this River, is disposed to sell one of them, and to a good neighbor, who will continue the system of improvement, the terms will be made very advantageous. The estate contains about 1000 acres, consisting of the usual portions of low grounds, second low grounds, and uplands, part of which has been greatly improved by Liming, Plaster and Clover. There is every advantage of River communication with Norfolk and Plymouth; the Railroad to the former will soon be completed, and if the Raleigh and Gaston Road is rebuilt, the estate will be accessible from Raleigh in half a day's ride. The health of the low Country has unquestionably changed within the last ten years, so it is no longer unsafe to reside there.

For further information, enquire by letter, post paid, of the subscriber, or in his absence of Thos. Sterling, Jackson, N. C. H. K. BURGWYN.

RALEIGH:

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1851.

☞ The Editor of the Raleigh Register seems to be totally incapable of appreciating courtesy and liberality on the part of his political opponents. During the recent absence of the Editor, his paper contained in the manner in which they were strong together; and a portion of one of these articles was so very ridiculous that we copied it into our columns, and submitted it at the same time a few good-natured comments upon it. We were careful to state, however, in so doing, that the Editor of the Register was also responsible for the nonsense which just then occupied his posts; and that it would be unjust to hold him responsible for the nonsense which, just then, occupied his columns. And how has this courtesy on our part been received? Why, the Editor has returned, and, mortified no doubt at the blunders aforesaid, he proceeds to pour out his gall and ill-humor upon us; and instead of thanking us, as he should have done, for our saving statement in his favor that he was absent at the time, he speaks of our course as "mean and pitiful," and seeks to "charge" us with the "irritability produced" by anticipated defeat, but at last sets it down "as but another of the exhibitions of that unbridled sendencies of a mind, willing to wound any thing and every body that crosses the path of its party, and for its sake to follow every where except where truth, justice, and fair-dealing lead the way."

Now, what we have to say in reply to this is, that we were kind on this occasion both to the Editor and his "Locum Tenens." We did not state what is notorious to every one, that the Register generally abounds in articles feeble and incoherent in their character; and that, as best, in the estimation even of many of his own partizans, the Editor cuts but a poor figure in his reflections and comments on the topics of the day. We did state, however, and we stand to it, that the main reason why the Register has held so many positions on the Slavery question, is to be found in the fact that the Editor has opened his Editorial columns to so many scribblers as have chosen to write upon the subject. "Every scribbler," we repeat, "has had his peculiar views, and that with the Whig organ has been made to bear the responsibility of all of them." We appeal to the Whigs of the day.

Speaking of his "Locum Tenens," whose hand, we have said, we noticed in our paper of the 9th, the Register says that our "coarse and ungenerous reflections" were well "calculated to wound the feelings, under the circumstances, of any man of sensibility." We said nothing intended or calculated to wound any man's feelings. Our remarks, as we have said, were good-natured—there was nothing in them "coarse" or "ungenerous." We have every reason to believe that the very same issue of the Register which contained the most offensive terms upon the character of Col. Ruffin? He alleged that Col. Ruffin had been a Whig—that he had turned Democrat—that Democracy had been a "paying business" to him—and that after the election, he would be "safe for a crow head feed" with as much flippancy and vulgarity as if he had practiced Billingsgate all his life!

But the Register says: "Had we ever been disposed to take advantage of typographical errors in the "Standard," during the absence of the Editor, to make assaults upon the merits of gentlemen left in charge of the Editorial department of that paper, and no more responsible for the mechanical details of the offices, than the man in the moon, we should have had ample opportunity to have done ourself that discredit, and them that injustice. We hope that we shall always be above this." Now, the fact is, the Register's article on which we commented was radically ridiculous—the excuse of "typographical errors" and "transpositions" in this will be attested by several gentlemen who read the proof to make sense out of the article by various readings. The Editor of the Register is welcome to examine the files of the Standard for years, with a view to the detection of decency and dignity, it is the most depraved paper in the State. It has nothing but personalities and coarse abuse. Such, in brief, is the Raleigh Register—its positions are invective, nick-names, denunciation, and coarse abuse. We are obliged to that paper, therefore, for its course towards us. The Editor, we repeat, has either courtesy or generosity on the part of this paper; and, under these circumstances, and especially when we consider the character of the paper as above described, if the Editor did not abuse and misrepresent us, we should be inclined to fear that we had failed in our duty, in one respect or another, to our friends and to the cause of the country.

PUBLIC DINNER AT NAGS-HEAD. It is proposed to have a large meeting of those interested in the opening of the inlet at Nagshead, on the 5th of September next. See proceedings of the late meeting held there, in another column.

WHIG COALITION IN NEW YORK

The Union of the Whig party in New York, which has been consummated, is to be hailed as a most auspicious event. The two wings of the party, "Woolly Heads" and "Silver Grays," and "Woolly Heads" and "Silver Grays," and "Woolly Heads" and "Silver Grays," and

THE NEW YORK COALITION.

The Raleigh Register has thus far been silent in relation to the late coalition formed in the State of New York between the Sewardites and Fillmore men. We demand of that paper, in the name of the people, to know what it means by this silence? Is it to be construed into an endorsement, by that paper, of this nefarious bargain?

A Committee of the Seward and Fillmore Whigs of New York, recently assembled together and consulted, with reference to the pending elections in that State; and the result was an Address, embodying the principles of the Whigs of New York, and intended as a platform for the friends of both Seward and Fillmore. We make the following extracts from this Address:

"That the Whigs of the State, as a body, are inflexibly opposed to the subjection of any territory of the United States now free, to laws imposing involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime; and they rejoice that no proposition to that effect is now pending, or is likely to be presented; while, at the same time, they unqualifiedly acknowledge the right of every sovereign State to regulate its own municipal institutions, in such manner as its people may deem most conducive to their safety and happiness, without interference, directly or indirectly, by citizens of other States, or subjects of other countries:

"That the laws of Congress, and of the State Legislatures, pronounced constitutional by the judicial tribunals, must be enforced and implicitly obeyed; and that while this is cheerfully recognized as the duty of all, as subjects of the laws, yet the right of citizens, as voters, is equally undeniable to discuss, with a full and mutual regard for the rights and interests of all parts of the confederacy (which is as necessary now to maintain, as it was indispensable to achieve the blessed Union of these States), the expediency of such laws, and the propriety of any of their provisions, and to seek, by constitutional means, their repeal or modification."

It will be seen, by the above, that the Whigs of New York have re-affirmed their attachment to the Wilmot Proviso, and have declared, unequivocally, that they will continue to discuss the question of Slavery, and to seek the repeal or modification of the fugitive-slave law. They refuse, in other words, to endorse the Compromise, or to be bound by it; and the Fillmore Whigs have agreed to this decision, and are thus committed, out and out, to the schemes of the Sewardites. The Southern people, though wronged by several measures of this Compromise, are to acquiesce in it without a murmur, and must approve it, under pain of being considered traitors and seditious persons; while in the North, the right is reserved by the friends of Fillmore and Seward, still further to agitate upon the question, and, if possible, to repeal the only one of these measures which affords any thing like substantial justice to the South!

A Convention of these agitators is to assemble at Syracuse, on the 17th of next month, when the platform above referred to will no doubt be endorsed by the Whigs of the whole State, and the campaign opened. As the Richmond Enquirer well remarks, "the political movements in New York are deeply interesting to every portion of the Union; more so, if possible, than those of South Carolina." That paper says further:

"It is at the North that inveterate and insurmountable hostility to the Compromise exists. The State of New York is the type of the whole non-slaveholding portion of the Union. As her two political conventions form coalitions and erect platforms, so will those of all the Northern States. We confidently believe that the Democratic Convention of that State will thoroughly purge itself of heresy and incendiarism; will erect a national platform, a platform upon which the friends of Union in that State will rally in overpowering numbers, and a platform which will be a model and example that will be followed by the Democracy of all the free States. We fear that the Whig Convention will produce a different combination; that a bargain will be struck for local power, at the expense of the national harmony; that it will be a combination actually, if not avowedly, against the Compromise, and against the rights and peace of the South; and that the Whig platform of New York will be the Whig platform of all the Northern States. The Syracuse Conventions will decide the complexion of the approaching Presidential canvass. We believe they will devolve again upon the Democratic party the task and the glory of saving the Union."

A correspondent of the Washington Union, writing from Albany, thus notices this unhallowed union:

"The marriage between the wooly-heads (Sewardites) and silver-grays (Fillmoreites) is not one of love but of reason—the object being to keep nine millions of money in the family, and to cheat the heirs-at-law out of the estate. With the nine millions of money New York might be made a permaneut Whig State, and Mr. Seward, having once secured his house, would be in a better conditton to extend his acquisitions in different directions. New York will always be the centre of his line of operation; that being once broken, the fragments of his army would soon be captured or destroyed.

With a view, then, of preserving the Whig ascendency of the State, (which will never be overcome as long as the old-line Democracy fishes for factious leaders instead of the faithful soldiers in the ranks,) the Hon. John C. Spencer, as far back as last winter, wrote a series of skeleton resolutions which it was his intention to have adopted by the Whig legislative caucus in this very remarkable city. Mr. Spencer was a far-sighted man. He wanted to heal the breach early, but Thurlow Weed thought the time had not yet come, and that Gen. Scott would be able to keep the field till after the fall elections. The overture was rejected; but the canal enlargement, the political power connected with it, and, above all, the distribution of nine millions of money, rendered the union of the silver-greys and woolly-heads a matter of great solicitude to Governor Seward, who in this emergency felt willing (and was advised by Weed) to make some very unmeaning concessions to secure some very substantial benefits to himself and his sinking cause.

In accordance with these views, it was thought best to treat the silver-greys as equals, as far as office was concerned, but to allow the woolly-heads, who pretend to be largest in numbers, the largest liberty of conscience and of principles. It was agreed to divide the spoils—the eight great offices of State and the nine millions of money—equally between the two factions; that is, to put four silver-greys and four woolly-heads in nomination, with the further understanding that the present State officers should step out too make room for candidates "fresh from the people." It was a union for the sake of the spoils—the difficulty being in the establishment of a platform for the voters. A legislative committee of six, composed of three woolly-heads and three silver-greys, acted as mediators between the two factions; and, after a three days' correspondence, continued sometimes till 3 o'clock in the morning, (and in which much diplomacy and no sincerity was displayed on either side,) they at last agreed on the division of the spoile, and the platform originally laid down by Mr. Spencer—so mutilated and deformed, however, that the disconsolate father can no longer recognize his own bantling.

Mr. Seward and Mr. Weed, to avoid suspicion, had the prudence to be absent from Albany—the former on a rogue's errand (to defend the Michagan conspirators at Detroit,) the latter on a tour to Montreal, in Canada. To keep up the joke, the Buffalo Express (ultra Seward) has been enjoined to talk of the "surrender" on the part of the Sewardites! while the New York Mirror brandishes its tin sword in the air, fighting on its own hook for Fillmore and Webster. A few of the bona fide Fillmorites, fearing that they are done brown, swear that they will secede again, "if the slightest sign of cheating is perceptible on the part of the woollies," and that they will have a great row on the 11th of September next. But the woollies will not be caught in so nefarious a transaction as cheating till the silver-grays shall have lost the power of punishing them. The whole transaction is too much fraught with turpitude and treason to the Union for either party ever to turn State's evidence against the other."

Horace Greely, of the New York Tribune, is delighted with this coalition; and it is supported and justified by the Washington Republic, the personal and political organ of the President.

TENNESSEE.

William B. Campbell, the Whig candidate, has been elected Governor of Tennessee by a small majority over Gov. Trousdale. Campbell has been a soldier in his day, and bears about him the glitter of military glory. But Trousdale is an older and a better soldier than Campbell, and yet he is beaten. The people of Tennessee like them both, we presume, and so they determined to give them both a chance to Gubernatorialize. A Knoxville Correspondent of the Washington Union says: "The democrats have unquestionably elected the following six congressional representatives, viz: Johnson, Jones, Stanton, Savage, Polk, and Harris, who constitute a majority of the delegation. There is also a strong probability that Anderson (whig) is defeated. The legislature is still in doubt. The chances are that there will be a democratic majority in the house of representatives, and a small whig majority in the senate."

Hurrah for Old Kentucky! A Telegraphic despatch to the last Washington Union, dated Louisville, August 15, says: "Archibald Dixon, the Whig candidate for Governor, is unquestionably defeated. Powell's majority will range from five to fifteen hundred."

That will do. The members of Congress from Kentucky stand, it is supposed, five Democrats to five Whigs.

Mob in Columbus, Ga. We find the following dispatches in the Macon Journal & Messenger of Wednesday last:

Columbus. Aug. 12, 3, 30 P. M.

Messrs. Editors: There is a great mob raging here at present. The negro man Jarrett, convicted by two successive Juries of the infamous crime of commiting a rape upon a little girl of ten years old, was to have been hung to-day. To the surprise of every one, he was pardoned by Gov. Towns. This has created great indignation among the populace, and a mob of five hundred persons are now before the Jail awaiting the hour of 4 o'clock, at which time they expect to hang him.

Columbus, Aug. 12, 6, 10 P. M.

The mob assembled at 4 o'clock, proceeded to the Jail and demanded the keys. The Sheriff refused to give them up—the doors were broken open, and the negro brought out and hung to a pine tree back of the Jail.

INTERESTING FROM CUBA.

The Savannah News has been permitted to make the following extract from a letter received in that city, dated

Jacksonville, (Fla.) Aug. 12, 1851.

"A vessel arrived here yesterday morning from Cardenas, having made the passage in five days from that port.

Although neither the Captain nor passengers, one of them a Spaniard, were willing to communicate the political news of the Island, from their conversation it is clear that the flame of the revolution has caught all over the Island.

It was said in Cardenas when the vessel sailed that the Government troops had had several encounters with the patriots, one of some importance, in which the latter had completely routed the Spaniards, killing about one hundred men, and capturing fourteen pieces of Artillery, which, without doubt, means a great deal.

"They also confirm the rising at Villa Clara, Trinidad, Santiago de Cuba, and Pinal del Rio; so that there only remains to the Spanish Government, Havana and Matanzas in the Western deparrment."

In addition to this, we learn that the brig Charles Kershaw, arrived at Charleston on the 15th, with Havana dates to the 8th instant. Intelligence of the sailing of Lopez in the Pampero had been received in Havana, and had created the greatest excitement. All the Spanish men of war in port had been ordered to cruise along the coast.

Railroad Meeting. At a meeting of the friends and subscribers of Stock to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, held, pursuant to public notice, at the Court House, in Warrenton, on the 12th inst.:

On motion of Maj. N. T. Green, William Boylan, Esq., was appointed Chairman and Edwin D. Drake Secretary. After the reading of two letters addressed by George W. Mordecai, Esq., to the Chairman, in relation to a contract for iron for the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, Mr. Edwards addressed the meeting for an hour, with force and clearness, showing the ability on the part of the people of Warren to subscribe liberally, and the benefits that would accrue to the Stockholders and the community by the reconstruction of the said Road.

Gen. R. M. Saunders being present, was invited to address the meeting upon the subject then under consideration, which he did, in his usual eloquent and forcible style. At the conclusion of which, books were opened for further subscriptions; before the closing of said books, the meeting, on motion, adjourned till 3 o'clock.

Evening Session, Three O'clock.

The meeting met according to adjournment—when the President delivered a few remarks, relative to the advantages to be derived by the public as well as the Stockholders if said Road should be built. Gen. Saunders then made another appeal to the patriotism, wisdom and interest of the people, to come forward and take Stock in said Road. Upon an examination of the books it was found that 382 shares had been subscribed, an increase of 191 shares since the meeting at Henderson on the 22d ult.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet at Shocco Springs on the morrow, 13th inst., at 11 o'clock.

Shocco Springs, August 13.

The meeting was called to order, pursuant to adjournment yesterday, by the Chairman, Wm. Boylan, Esq.

Gen. Saunders, as chairman of the Executive Committee, reported as the result of the deliberations of said Committee, a recommendation, that the Commissioners and sub-committees heretofore appointed, keep open the Books of subscription to the Stock, for the purpose of raising one hundred thousand dollars yet wanting to secure the charter. He urged this proposition in a few appropriate remarks. After the close of his remarks, twelve additional shares were taken, making the entire subscription in Warren county of 394 shares or $39,400.

On motion the meeting adjourned to meet again in Warrenton, on Friday the 12th of September.

Alabama Election. Montgomery, Aug. 10. In this, the second Congressional district, Abercrombie, Union Whig, is elected to Congress by one thousand majority. The delegation in the next Congress will, it is thought, stand as follows, though the election of Irwin, in the 4th district, is somewhat doubtful:

1st district—		Bragg, Secession Democrat.
2d	"	Abercrombie, Union Whig.
3d	"	Harris, Secession Democrat.
4th	"	John Irwin, Southern Rights.
5th	"	Houston, Union Democrat.
6th	"	Cobb, Union Democrat.
7th	"	White, Union Whig.

The National Intelligencer contains the following annunciation of distinguished nuptials:

"Married, in the Catholic Church, at Harper's Ferry, on the 9th instant, by Rev. Mr. Plunkitt, Miss Apollonia Jagiello, late of Lithuania, Poland, and Major Gaspar Tochman, formerly of Warsaw, Poland."

At a meeting of the visitors at Nag's Head held on Saturday the 9th August 1851, Jos. Halsey, Esq., of Tyrrel was called to the Chair, and H. A. Gilliam, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman at the call of the meeting briefly explained its object to be the adoption of such action as shall bring the subject of re-opening the communication of the waters of the Atlantic Ocean and the Albemarle Sound prominently before the public.

On motion a committee of five, R. R. Heath, Chowan, S. S. Simmons, Tyrrel, James C. Skinner, of Perquimans, Col. R. T. Paine of Chowan, and Jno. B. Beasley, Esq., from Washington were appointed a committee to prepare and report resolutions to the meeting. After a short retirement they reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this meeting, assembled on the spot, composed of citizens resident upon the various rivers and water courses directly interested in re-opening Nag's Head Inlet, do reiterate the immense importance of the work, both to our State and to the General Government—that the annual saving to the State and to the commerce of the Government, beside the saving of human life, will justify the enterprise—and that these considerations united, imperatively demand that the work shall be done, and done immediately.

Resolved, That we have entire confidence and trust in the practicability of the work, upon the estimate made by the Engineers who have examined and reported upon the subject—and we believe that it is a work strictly National in its character, and should be completed at the cost of the Government Treasury.

Resolved, That as a means to the attainment of this object, we desire to keep this subject prominently before the attention of the public, and for this purpose we recommend that a Public Dinner be given at Nag's Head on the fifth day of September—and that the Committee of Invitation invite the President of the United States and the members of his Cabinet, the Ex-Governors of North Carolina, with His Excellency Governor Reid and the members of his Council, the Senators and Members elect to the National Congress from our State, Walter Gwynn, and such other distinguished citizens of the State as they shall think proper, to meet us and accept our hospitality on that occasion.

Resolved, That R. R. Heath, Chowan; Charles W. Skinner, Jr., Perquimans; John Pool, Pasquotank; Willis F. Riddick, Gates; H. A. Gilliam, Bertie; H. B. Short, Washington; Asa Biggs, Martin; Abram W. Riddick, Nag's Head; Jos. McClees, Tyrrel; Cornelius G. Lamb, Camden; H. K. Burgwyn, Northampton; Benjamin T. Simmons, Currituck: John A. Anderson, Hertford, be appointed the Committee of Invitation and Reception.

On motion, the President of the meeting, Jos. Halsey, Esq., was added to the committee.

On motion publication requested in the papers in this District and in the Raleigh Register and Standard.

Whig Abolitionism in Pennsylvania. The notorious Thaddeus Stevens, whose consistent efforts in behalf of abolitionism are well known to the whole nation, is taking an active part in the Pennsylvania canvass. Of course he sustains, with all his fanatical zeal, the pretensions of his friend William F. Johnston, the whig nominee for governor, denouncing the Compromise, and justifying Governor Johnston's course in pocketing the act of the Pennsylvania legislature which repealed that portion of the act of 1847 which denied the use of jails for the safekeeping of fugitive slaves. We make the following extracts from the letter of a correspondent of the Lancaster Intelligencer, giving an account of a whig meeting at Millerstown:

"The famous general of the buckshot war, alias woolly-head chief, was next called upon. His appearance was greeted by one hurrah for 'Thad. Stevens,' one for 'Washington,' and one for the 'Gettysburg Tapeworm!' The substance of his speech may be judged, as every one knows his forte to be vile slang and misrepresentation. He commenced with a tirade of abuse against our great and good statesman, James Buchanan. The man who can speak so meanly of the mighty and towering intellect of that venerable statesman, or so sneeringly allude to his silvery and time-frosted locks, must indeed be lost to all sense of honor or shame. But the foul and polluted Billingsgate—the low, cowardly, scurrilous abuse dealt out by such political demagogues—such anti-masonic-native-American whig abolition tricksters—such disunion agitators as Stevens, against such men as Buchanan and Bigler, will never reach them; the very attempt is an abortion, because men of intelligence, of common sense, be they whig or democrat, must deprecate such a course of procedure. Mr. Stevens said that he voted for the anti-kidnapping law, and felt proud in having done so. He also defended W. F. Johnston in his pocketing the bill for the repeal of the seventh section—that he had a right to do so. These remarks were not approved by the silver-grays present; but as the management of the meeting was entirely under the control of the woolly-heads, they were compelled to swallow it. In touching the compromise measure, he said that Gov. Johnston was perfectly right in being in favor of its repeal, and that it should be repealed in the face of the 'nigger drivers,' and of all the charges of fanaticism, etc. Stevens concluded upon his favorite hobby of abolitionism. How sensible whigs can endorse such a man as Stevens is much to be wondered at."

THE CROPS.

Alabama. The Tuscaloosa Monitor of the 31st ult., says:

The corn crop through this whole section of country is literally destroyed. Many of our farmers are cutting down their entire crops for fodder; whole, and large fields, in many instances, not affording a single ear or shoot. Corn has already been sold here, we understand, at one dollar and a quarter per bushel, and there is no telling what its price will be before the opening of navigation enables us to get supplies from the seaboard.

The cotton crop is greatly injured by the drought, and the probability is that it will be cut off one-half or two-thirds. In the memory of the oldest inhabitant, there never has been known here a drought so destructive.

Mississippi. A correspondent of the Mobile Tribune, under date of Prairie Point, (Miss.) August 1, says:

My information from Lowndes and Monroe counties is that their crops will yield about the same as last year. I know the great number of misrepresentations about the growing crop will prevent us from getting the benefit of increased prices for a small crop until it developes itself by necessity at the ports, but allow me to make a prediction that the crop in Alabama and Mississippi will be short of 1850 and 52 at least one hundred thousand bales.

Louisiana. The Farmerville (Union Parish) Enquirer of the 24th ult., says:

M. W. O. Jones presented us with an open cotton boll on Wednesday last, as an evidence, not of a favorable season, but the reverse. The drought in all this section of country, excepting a few small localities, has been unprecedented. The corn is literally burned up, and the cotton small, yellow and already blossoming in the tops of the plants. The prospect is truly gloomy. Many planters will hardly make more cotton than will suffice to buy their provisions. Rain now will only partially restore the cotton—only late corn can be benefitted by it. We understand that in Jackson the crops are equally bad.

Texas. The Marshall Texian of July 26, says:

We have been fifteen years in the Cotton growing States; and we have never known a drought so long continued and disastrous. On very few plantations, will there be even a fair crop, while on nearly all others scarcely anything will be made. Many planters will not make more than corn enough for bread; and if the drought continues a few days longer the Cotton crops will be almost entirely destroyed. It is already so far injured that scarcely a fourth of the usual yield will be realized.

The rivers continue extremely low, but not quite so much so as a week ago. We have advices from Fayetteville to 13th inst., P. M. There was 20 inches water on the shoals, and our highest draught boats would be able to get up, with lighters conveying merchandize for the interior, and probably return with light loads of up-country produce. This latter, however, is not certain. Generally business continues dull, owing to the scarcity of produce. But at this season of the year not much animation is looked for. A few weeks more will drive away the dreary season, and our town will again make a more formidable appearance. Our merchants are many of them already at the North selecting their stock of fall goods. By the middle of September their importations will probably be ready for the inspection of the public. Wilmington Journal.

Authentic Facts Relative to the Cuban Expedition—The Departure of the Pampero—Loyalty of the Troops—Another Race Probable, &c.

Our information as to Cuban affairs, is augmented by some few facts of considerable interest. It is now known that the Pampero was equipped, and sailed, with the knowledge of the officers of the Government in New Orleans, but without any hindrance from them. The Pampero was not cleared at the Custom House, though her sailing and the object of her expedition must have been known to the Collector. Besides this, it appears that Gen. Twiggs, some weeks before the Pampero sailed, notified the Collector that an expedition was on foot, but the Collector replied that it must be a mistake. After the Pampero had sailed, he wrote to Gen. Twiggs and protested his ignorance of the expedition. Gen. Twiggs, commander of the Southern military district, was under instructions to keep his eye on the Fillibusteros. But, if the Government officers, and the most popular and influential presses and politicians in New Orleans are Filibusteros, it is quite idle to make any opposition to their projects.

The United States Marshal, for the New Orleans district, is here; and the District Attorney, Mr. Hunton, was recently here. General Campbell, late Consul at Havana, is also here; and thus the government, i. e. the small part of it now at the seat of government, must be well advised as to the state and prospects of Cuban affairs.

The members of the Cabinet here have, it is said, received information which has satisfied them that the Fillibusteros cannot rely on the infidelity of the Spanish army in Cuba. They have been represented as 20,000 strong, well disciplined, well paid, well fed, and well clad, and perfectly loyal. If this be true—and the representation is from the most reliable sources—the result cannot be long protracted.

The Creoles are intimidated from rising by the threat of the Captain General to liberate and arm their slaves. But this threat has been so often repeated, and to American officers, and through the Spanish Minister here, that it is considered as intended to deter the people of our slaveholding States from co-operating with the insurgents and invaders. It is not probable that this menace will be executed until after the state of affairs shall be desperate, and the revolution be certain of success, and then it will be too late. The threat may serve as a preventive, but its execution will not be a cure of a revolution. But if the Governor and Captain General will issue his abolition decree at once, it is probable that he will have the sympathies of our abolitionists, and their aid also.

If the Spanish army and the Spanish inhabitants remain loyal, they can make an effectual resistance to any revolutionary movements, whether from within or without—at least for the present juncture.

It now appears that no advice could have been sent to Havana of the intended Lopez expedition, in time to put the authorities on their guard against it. As to the vessel despatched by the Spanish Consul from New Orleans, she will be behind the Pampero three or four days, and it is even surmised that Lopez would make prize of her.

In all probability, Lopez effected his landing, but was afraid to send the Pampero back for any Fillibustero freight, as he had promised to do. He probably remembers his interesting race with the Creole, when he was chased into Key West, with only a few fathoms length between him and the yard arm of the Pizarro. He will detain the Pampero for another race. Ion.

Arrival of the Prometheus—Later from California.

New York, Aug. 13.

The steamer Prometheus, with San Juan dates to the 4th August, and San Francisco dates to the 15th July, arrived here to-day, having on board 300 passengers, $200,000 in gold, as freight, and $400,000 in the hands of passengers. The passengers express great satisfaction with the Nicaragua route.

We learn, by the reports from San Francisco, that a desperado named James Stuart was hung by Lynch law at that place on the 11th of July, in the presence of 5,000 people. Citizens of other towns in California were adopting vigorous measures to protect themselves from the criminal acts of this set of men, the laws being found inadequate to that purpose.

The steamer Manchester City arrived at Philadelphia to-day.

Further News by the Prometheus.

The vicinity of Rogue River and Katamath region are infested with bands of hostile Indians, who have committed numerous murders among the inhabitants. They are also troublesome in the valley of the Sacramento, and refuse to meet the commissioners who are without money to prosecute their commission.

The Mormons are making a decided movement towards establishing a direct communication from Salt Lake to the Pacific Ocean.

Mining intelligence continues extremely encouraging.

The effects of the last fire are already disappearing, the burnt district being pretty thickly studded with settlements of substantial brick stores and dwellings which are growing up in different parts of the city.

Agricultural prospects are very good.

Political affairs are attracting great attention. There are three parties in the field—Independents, Democrats, and Whigs.

The markets generally were overstocked, though prices continued unchanged.

Carpenters' wages were $10 per day, and common laborers' $5. The wages of seamen has somewhat declined. Money was abundant.

That Stanly should have been elected has taken every body with surprise, and more especially is it singular that he should have received an increased majority in Washington county, where all the leading Whigs are against him. It has doubtless been effected by exciting the poorer class, who do not hold slaves, against the leading men who do; Mr. Stanly setting himself up as the champion of the non-slaveholding interest. Mr. Collins used to have a vast influence in that county, but it has been broken down by representing him as an aristocrat. Funny that, from the old Federal party—isn't it? In a casual conversation with one of our members in the last General Assemby, we remember his mentioning the indignation manifested by the Whig members and Senators from the lower part of the Eighth District, when talking of Mr. Stanly's course in the last Congress. Some of them went so far as to say that he could not be elected in his own county—no, not even to a constable's office. But what a change has come over the spirit of their dream. No doubt the very same men exerted their whole strength for him when the trial came. Ruffin, however, got the full strength of his party, and sustained himself nobly. On the Whigs alone must rest the reproach of Stanly's election.

The elections in other States are chequered, but the result, if calmly viewed, tells a uniform story. That story is that the Democratic party has made a uniform gain whenever it has gone into the contest under its old colors, and fought in behalf of the old issues, without erecting any new platform or making any single question a shibboleth. No one idea party can exert any permanent influence in the United States. "Union" or "Secession" parties, as such, must necessarily be transient in their character and evanescent in their influence. The good old States' Rights Democratic party is the party for us. It upholds the constitution—that is what we want. It restricts the general government to its expressly delegated powers—that is all we want; and moreover, it teaches us that the States are sovereign, and hold in their own hands the means of redress in the last extremity—the final resort. Wilmington Journal.

Free Negroes in Ohio. A writer in the Baltimore Patriot, who is travelling in Ohio, gives the following account of the Randolph negroes, who, it will be remembered, were driven from the homes which had been procured for them, by the whites:

"Troy, about twenty miles from Dayton, is a small and rather dilapidated town, between this place and Pequa. Along the canal the majority of the Randolph negroes are located. It was in the adjoining county of Mercer that the large tract of land was purchased for their settlement from which they were forcibly ejected by the white inhabitants. The condition of these poor creatures is a sad commentary on the miserable policy of emancipating negroes, and allowing them to remain in this country. The majority of these once invaluable servants are now worthless pests upon the community among whom they are located, and often want for the common necessities of life. I heard several of them express an ardent wish to return to the shores of Roanoke again, where they once had plenty, and did not know what it was to suffer for want."

[Telegraphed for the Washington Union.]

Arrival of the Steamer Baltic—Four Days Later from Europe.

New York, August 16—10, a. m. The Baltic has arrived in nine days and thirteen hours from Liverpool, with 148 passengers and a valuable cargo. The Canada arrived at Liverpool at 1 o'clock on Saturday.

Parliamentary business is wholly unimportant. Lord Palmerston stated in the Commons, on the 4th, that the Turkish government had positively promised the English minister to liberate Kossuth and his fellow-prisoners on the 15th of September.

The Liverpool Chamber of Commerce has adopted a petition to government for a reduction of postage to America.

Lord Arundal has been elected to Parliament from Limerick.

The Queen, in reply to the address asking a continuance of the Chrystal Palace, states that the question is too complicated to be suddenly answered.

Alfred Bunn has again leased Drury Lane Theatre.

France. The chief subject of remark is the visit of the Lord Mayor of London and the Commissioners of the Exhibition to Paris, accompanied by several hundred Englishmen and foreigners of note. The opening banquet on the 2d instant was exceedingly gorgeous.

Five hundred persons sat down, and in the evening several hundred were assembled.

On the 6th a superb review and sham fight was to take place.

Spain. The Cortes was prorogued on July 30.

Markets. Cotton is unchanged, but less firm. Holders keep the market well supplied, and last week's rates are barely obtained. The sales on Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday were 24,000 bales, of which exporters and speculators took 9,000 bales. The sales of Wednesday were 8,000 bales.

Consols closed on Tuesday at 96 ¾ a 96⅞; on Wednesday, at noon, at 96⅞.

Breadstuffs. The fine weather and large imports have produced a dull flour market, and prices have declined 6d. Ohio, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, are quoted at 20s. a 20s. 6d.

Indiana Elections. Correct returns from this State show that the democrats have even excelled themselves in the recent contest. The new constitution is adopted by more than twenty thousand majority, and the article providing for the exclusion of free negroes (which was submitted separately to the people) by thirty thousand. The legislature is overwhelmingly democratic in both branches, and the congressional delegation is divided as follows:

		Democrats.	Whig.
1st district,		James Lockhart,
2d	"	Cyrus L. Dunham,
3d	"	John L. Robinson,
4th	"		Sam'l W. Parker,
5th	"	Thos. A. Hendricks,
6th	"	W. A. Gorman,
7th	"	John G. Davis,
8th	"	Daniel Mace,
9th	"	Graham N. Fitch,
10th	"	James W. Borden.

The last delegation stood: democrats 8, whigs 1, freesoiler 1. Wash. Union.

Cuban Affairs. As the public mind must be more or less excited in regard to the political movements now transpiring in Cuba, we place in our columns the following statistical table, taken from Wilson's Map of Cuba, published in 1850:

The whole population, including troops, strangers, &c.	1,247,230
The white population is	565,560
The free colored do is	205,570
The slave do is	436,100

Estimate of the number of men capable of bearing arms:

Creole, whites	140,000
Do free colored	40,000

180,000—all of whom it is said are favorable to revolution.

Spaniards	20,000
Spanish troops	23,000

43,000—who may be opposed to revolution.

In the jurisdiction where the revolution is said to have commenced, (Puerto Principe:)

Whites	40,000
Free colored	10,000
Slaves	13,000

Puerto Principe is about three hundred and fifty miles from Havana. The bay of Nuevitas is the entrance to Puerto Principe, and the river emptying into the bay runs into the interior to the town of Puerto Principe. The approach to the bay of Nuevitas by troops must be made by sea from Havana. On the opposite side of the island, and equidistant from Puerto Principe, are the town and river St. Cruz, which is accessible to small vessels of war.

THE MARKETS.

Petersburg, August 16. Tobacco—common lugs $4 to $5—good to fine $5 50 to $7—shipping leaf $6 50 to $12—manufacturing $12 to $14. No operations in Cotton—prime held at 8 cents. Corn selling at from 62½ cents to 65 per bushel; wheat 80 to 90 according to quality; bacon from 8½ to 12½ according to quality; lard, in kegs, 12½ cents; herrings, No. 1 cut, $6 75—gross $4 75. No material change in prices generally since last week.

Fayetteville, August 16. We have to report another dull week, with the exception of flour which arrived very freely on yesterday. Some 60 or 75 barrels came in and sales were made at $5 50 to $5 60 for super. Cash. Cotton has declined, and sales of fair were made at 6½ cents yesterday, and 4 for common; corn, per bushel, 90 to 95 cents; bacon 14½ to 15 cents; wheat $1 per bushel. Carolinian.

Wilmington, August 14. Stock of bacon light, and hams bringing 12½ cents; corn 75 to 78 cents; flour $5 to $7 75; lard 12½ cents; a small lot of inferior white oak barrel staves brought $15 per M—a considerable demand for both red and white oak staves and also ash heading; river wide boards and scantling in demand. The Journal says of Naval Stores: The sales of Turpentine have been steady, with one exception, since our review of last Thursday. The receipts continue light, and none received by water, from above tide-way. On Tuesday, 300 barrels brought $2 30 for yellow, and $2 60 for virgin dip, being an advance of 10 cts. per bbl. The sales previous and since have all been made at our last week's figures, viz: yellow dip at $2 20; virgin dip at $2 50 per bbl. of 280 lbs. The sales of the week foot up about 2,700 bbls. Spirits Turpentine—About 700 bbls. of this article has changed hands since our last week's review, at 26 cents per gallon, at which price the market closed this day week. 362 barrels of the above estimate changed hands this morning. The market appears to be settled to-day. Rosin—600 barrels No. 3 Rosin changed owners at 90 cents; and 1,700 at 95 cents per bbl. Market not considered firm. Tar—A small lot—250 barrels—reported to be inferior, fetched $1 30 per bbl.

New York, August 16. Cotton market active. Sales to-day of 4,000 bales at ⅛ to ¼ cent advance. Prices of flour unchanged, and a slight decline in corn.

NOTICE.

THE Subscriber is authorized to sell a valuable tract of Land lying in the upper end of Halifax County, North Carolina, in the neighborhood of Brinkleyville, adjoining the lands of the late Wm. H. Thomas, Joseph J. Williams, and others, containing 896 acres, by a recent survey; it being the residence of the late Colonel Rhesea Read. There is a good and convenient dwelling House on the tract, with some little repairs, with other out houses, and a never failing Spring of good water, as near as could be desired I deem it unnecessary to say anything with regard to the quality of the Land (only I think it equal to any of the neighborhood Lands) as no person would purchase without viewing. A great bargain can be made in whole or any part. Any person wishing to purchase can find me in the neighborhood of the land.

Somerville says:

In mind compos'd he sucks, thick curling clouds
Of smoke around his reeking temples play,
Joyous he sits, and, impotent of thought,
Puffs away care and sorrow from his heart.

BUT some others have a say in this matter, and I will recommend that while the puffing is going on, I may be allowed to suggest that I have now on hand more than 300,000 Cigars of various brands, and some of them very fine; so let all those who delight in a glorious old Cigar, call in and supply themselves with a box or more.

FOR OLD AND YOUNG.

"THE NORTH CAROLINA READER;"

A WORK designed to familiarize the minds of the young with the character, history, and resources of their own well-favored father-land. The author, while prosecuting the work, received many letters of encouragement from leading citizens—all of whom expressed a desire that it might find its way into every home of North Carolina; and these good wishes and favorable opinions were uttered before the style of the work was known to any one but the author himself. The public will now be able to judge of the merits of the plan, and of the execution, for themselves; and, considering the amount of matter, it will be cheap and in the power of every one to buy and examine. The work will contain

1st. A general description of North Carolina, with reference to scenery productions, capabilities, population, and manners, illustrated with numerous engravings.

2. A history of the discovery, settlement, and progress of the State down to the present time.

3. Poetical and oratorical exercises, some of them by North Carolinians.

4. Chronological and historical tables, abstract of the last census, explanations of popular scientific terms, &c. &c.

The book will also contain rules for correct reading, abridged and digested from the best authorities, and is intended to be, to the North Carolinian, an indispensable companion. It will be published by LIPPINCOTT, GRAMBO & Co, successor to GRIGG & ELLIOT, No. 14 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia, and orders addressed to them will be promptly attended to. The undersigned will also be in Philadelphia for a few weeks; letters addressed to him or the publishers will meet with attention. The book will be out in time for the Fall trade, and merchants of North Carolina who deal in school books would do well to call on the publishers, or send early orders. Liberal discounts will be made to wholesale purchasers, and the retail price will be $1—6 copies for $5—10 for $8—40 for $30.

C. H. WILEY.

P. S. It is the author's design to publish, in the course of a few months, a Reader for beginners, provided the work now in press is liberally patronized. The two Readers will make a complete series; and the cost will be but little over half that of the Worcester Series, the one most in use, while it will contain all the necessary instructions and matter to suit all classes.

THE FAUQUIER

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS,

Fauquier County, Virginia.

WILL be opened for visitors on the first of June. They are situated on the Rappahannock river, (now navigable,) thirty-eight miles above Fredericksburg, and fifty, nearly due west, from Alexandria.

No pains have been spared to continue the attractions of the place to the votaries of pleasure or the seekers of health. The recent publication in pamphlet of the eminent and Rev Thornton Stringfellow shows, beyond all question, the healing qualities of this water in many diseases—dyspepsia, dropsy, &c. &c. He had spent the previous season here, and made a thorough and sifting examination of the details of the case reported by him, and he is of opinion that the extraordinary medicinal advantages of the Springs have been obscured in the greater allurements to fashionable life.

The railroad from Alexandria is rapidly approaching these Springs, and will soon make the trip a delightful one from that city and all north of it. In the mean time the stages run tri-weekly from Washington, and will be daily after the 1st July. A daily line of stages will be run by Mr. Quisenberry, from Fedricksburg, after 1st July; and in the mean time he engages to send up all passengers, at the regular fare, ($3,) as they may present themselves.

Terms of board same as last year, viz: $86 dollars for the whole season, ending first October; $75 for three months; $60 for two months; $35 for one month; $18 for two weeks; $10 for one week; $1,75 per day. Meals or lodging 50 cents each. Servants, and children under 12 years, half price. No charge for children under 3 years. Horses 50 cents a day, or $10 per month.

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, CROUP, ASTHMA, WHOOPING COUGH AND CONSUMPTION.

In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not our wish to trifle with the lives or health of the afflicted, but frankly to lay before them the opinions of distinguished men and some of the evidences of its success, from which they can judge for themselves. We sincerely pledge ourselves to make no wild assertions or false statements of its efficacy, nor will we hold out any hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant.

Many proofs are here given, and we solict an inquiry from the public into all we publish, feeling assured they will find them perfectly reliable, and the medicine worthy their best confidence and patronage.

From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica, Bowdoin College.

Dear Sir: I delayed answering the receipt of your preparation, until I had an opportunity of witnessing its effects in my own family, or in the families of my friends.

This I have now done with a high degree of satisfaction, in cases both of adults and children.

I have found it, as its ingredients show, a powerful remedy for colds, and coughs, and pulmonary diseases.

PARKER CLEAVELAND, M. D.

BRUNSWICK, ME., Feb. 5, 1847.

Read the following, and see if this medicine is worth a trial. This patient had become very feeble, and the effect of the medicine was unmistakably distinct:—

UNITED STATES HOTEL, SARATOGA SPRINGS, July 5, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Ayer,—Sir: I have been afflicted with a painful affection of the lungs, and all the symptoms of settled consumption, for more than a year. I could find no medicine that would reach my case, until I commenced the use of your "Cherry Pectoral," which gave me gradual relief, and I have been steadily gaining my strength till my health is well nigh restored.

While using your medicine I had the gratification of curing with it my reverend friend, Mr. Truman, of Sumpter District, who had been suspended from his parochial duties by a severe attack of bronchitis.

I have pleasure in certifying these facts to you,

And am, sir, yours respectfully,

J. F. CALHOUN, of South Carolina.
